Art Unit: 2837

1. Claims 1-2 are objected to because of the following informalities: a method claim must provide active method steps, and by reciting "consist of the steps of:" following the preamble.

For example, providing a column ... and so forth. Each step must begin with an active verb and followed by the method action.

Further, quotation marks in claim 2 are improper and should be deleted.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. Claim 3 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

Claim 3 recites intended use, and does not contain method steps to further limiting the previous claims. Intended use does not carry patentability.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller (1,473,495).

Regarding claim 1, Miller discloses a method of writing music consists of: a column with a right and left side to it (the left and right hand sides of a column is divided by lines D shown the figure), whereby chords and lone piano notes to be played with the right hand are written in the right column, and low bass notes, non-low sounding solitary notes and left handed chords are written in the left column (see figure).

5. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The reason of allowance for claim 2 will be stated after applicant's amendment of the claims to comply with method claim requirement.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shih-yung Hsieh whose telephone number is 571-272-2065. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:00-3:30.
